Mind Matters Business

Two in five employees (39%) reported experiencing poor mental health symptoms related to work in the last year.¹

Health and Wellbeing are key strands of responsible business. Good employee mental health is fundamental to building a successful, sustainable organisation and we know that good work positively enhances wellbeing¹, yet 69% of managers reported receiving no mental health training as part of their role².

It's clear that mental health training and support is vitally needed in the workplace to ensure that staff thrive, and businesses prosper. The Wellbeing Team at YMCA Norfolk can provide the internationally recognised and certificated Mental Health First Aid training as well as working with your organisation to support your policies and procedures around mental health.

¹Business in the Community, Mental Health at Work 2019 Report 'Time to Take Ownership' ²Institute for Leadership and Management, Mind Culture 2017

"As the trend to focus on well-being and mental health in the workplace becomes an increasing priority it has been positive to invite YMCA Norfolk to become part of our delivery team to be able to offer Mental Health First Aid Training to clients as well as advice on integrating mental health into everyday work practices."
